National Seminar On “Teacher Education in NEP 2020: The Path Ahead”

February 08, 2021

JOINTLY ORGANIZED BY
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION,
CHAUDHARY CHARAN SINGH
UNIVERSITY, MEERUT
&
VIDYA BHARTI UCHACH
SHIKSHA SANSTAHN

Teacher education is an issue of continuing interest, debates, and discussions for academicians, governments, policy-makers, and the general public. The reason is simple, teachers are essential to enhance the quality of learning, and teacher education is responsible to mold quality teachers. This call to improve teacher education becomes more significant because 50% of India's current population is below the age of 25 and over 65% below 35. As a much-needed intervention, NEP 2020, suggests several reforms, improvements, and new approaches in teacher education to cater to the demands of changing economy and society. With this backdrop in mind, a National Seminar on "Teacher Education in NEP 2020: The Path Ahead" is proposed to delve upon various issues related to teacher education.

Teacher educators, researchers, educational administrators, and members of NGOs working in the field of teacher education are cordially invited to submit their papers for the Seminar on any of the sub-themes.

- Attracting the best talent in the teaching profession
- Programs in teacher education
- Nurturing quality teachers
- Induction of teachers in the teaching profession
- Continuous professional development of teachers
- ICT for teacher education
- Empowering teacher educators
- Best practices and case studies in teacher education
